Greetings from the VCAM Triennial Workshops Committee!

We are gearing up for the Triennial conference here in Cleveland, Ohio at The Cleveland Museum of Art October 9-12, 2012.

Cleveland has much to offer the visitor, and we want the conference to offer the museum volunteer an exceptional experience as well.

Attached is the VCAM Call for Workshop Proposals for the Cleveland Triennial with the theme of Valuing the Volunteer. Also attached is the Presentation Proposal form. You may submit more than one proposal, but each proposal must be on a separate form. Please read the attached materials carefully.

We welcome your proposals; the deadline for submitting proposals is October 3, 2011. Acceptance notices will be sent out by November 15, 2011. You may submit your proposals as hard copy or as an email attachment: vcam@clevelandart.org

Please note that your Museum must be a member of VCAM for you to participate in the workshops. More information about VCAM membership is available on the VCAM website www.vcam.org.
